2019 Gila Youth Turkey Camp

April 12–14, 2019 • Luna, New Mexico

Registration

New Mexico Department of Game and Fish Conservation Officers are hosting a special Gila Youth Turkey Camp near Luna, New Mexico. Youth hunters and a parent/guardian will be required to provide their own camping/hunting gear and meals for this opportunity (Conservation Officers will provide a parting meal on the last day). Youth hunters must purchase a game license, habitat stamp and turkey license/carcass tag prior to attending the camp.

Registration for this unique camp is open to youths 11 to 17 years old (must be younger than 18 on the hunt dates) who have never hunted before or have never hunted turkey. Youth applicants must have successfully passed a Hunter Education course. Youths must have an adult register and participate with them. The camp will consist of turkey hunting with New Mexico Department of Game and Fish personnel as mentors/guides, presentations and prizes.

Prior to completing this registration form, each youth and adult will need to create a Customer Identification Number (CIN) account at <https://onlinesales.wildlife.state.nm.us>. Be sure to write down your login name, password and CIN.

A registration form is required for both the youth participant and their accompanying adult. Space is limited to 10 and will be filled through a random drawing.

Registration deadline: March 15, 2019
